

Protect Your Property

Intellectual property rights have value only if they are enforceable. And to be enforceable, they must be established, protected and maintained in a proper and timely manner.

Remarkue is a trusted administrative services partner to IP portfolio owners and managers. Our docketing and IP management services provide substantial value to any intellectual property portfolio by securing its value and maximizing enforceability, while saving you time and money.

Around the world, around the clock. Remarkue is here for you.

The Remarkue Advantage

Our goal is to help you make the most of your intellectual property. We manage the complete life cycle of your patents, trademarks, and related IP assets. We offer flexible weekly or monthly services depending on your needs, and can easily accommodate peak periods in your workflow. And our seasoned, professional staff members work as an extension of your team, efficiently and effectively managing administrative details.

Partnering with Remarkue to manage your intellectual property enables you and your staff be 100% focused on the success of your business.
